

Seated is limited to the first 20 officers

FIRST-LINE SUPERVISOR SCHOOL

AT MSSU, JUSTICE 125
AUGUST 4 - 8, 2025

8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

This course is designed to help new employees transition into supervisory roles and refine the skills of experienced supervisors. Participants will gain a broader perspective on administration and become more committed to the managerial process and organizational success. Key supervisory skill areas covered in the course include:

- Human (coaching, mentoring, resolving conflict)
- Affective (attitudes, empathy, fairness, integrity, values, loyalty)
- Conceptual (analysis, decision making, prioritizing and solving problems)
- Knowledge (directing, evaluating, administrative credibility, policy implementation)

CONTACT US:

For group registration or additional information contact the Justice Studies Program: Angela Bennett at Bennett-a@mssu.edu
417-625-9302, 3950 E. Newman Road, Joplin, MO 64801

✓ 21 hours of Interpersonal Perspectives

✓ 12 hours of Technical Studies

✓ 2 hours of Legal Studies

This is Missouri P.O.S.T. Approved
Training

COST PER PARTICIPANT:

💰 $400.00 for non-contract agencies

💰 $200.00 for contract agencies

SCAN QR CODE TO REGISTER

